How can I construct a dot density map?

You can add dots to your map in two ways, importing data from a file or by importing a kml file. Please, read the TIPS on how to import a KML file or data from excel for more information.